

Dear Martial Arts Friends, Competitors and Masters,

I am cordially inviting you as my special guest and your organization to participate in our US Open Challenge 2014 at Mobile Civic Center on June 14th. This is the 24th US Open Challenge highlighting on Sanshou and Extreme Sanda for the last 2 decades.

The event promises not just an exciting fight in the ring but also it will give martial artists of all styles, amateur or future professional competitors a chance to express and test themselves and their skills and make friends at the same time in sportsmanship.

The Day Event will have many forms, weapons and light contact as well as continuous sports sparring with limited youth Sanda. Please consult event logistics and agenda lineup.

The Night Event, which is a “K. Superstar Search,” is designed to search for the future, best and most exciting MMA/Sanda professional competitors around the globe.

It's been 20 years since I hosted the very first official US Open International Sanda/Sanshou fight in the US, which was at the Mobile Convention Center where my first group of great fighters such as David Sanders and Cung Le were produced.

To celebrate Sanda/Sanshou making its way to the US for 20 years, the Shaolin Chan Foundation and Shaolin Institute along with many other organizations and friends will host and sponsor this US Open Challenge in addition to many more US Open Challenges and K. Superstar Search events. For future competition information you may contact us at: 251-662-3225, 770-286-9808 or visit: www.shaolin-world.net or www.usaskf.org

Since 1994, the US Open International Martial Arts Championship has had many world class matches. Several international fighters and fighting superstars started their careers here having participated in the US Open International Martial Arts Championships in Mobile, AL.

International teams from four continents have participated in the US Open International Martial Arts Championships. These include the South Africa Sanshou Team, the Egyptian team, European teams from Portland, Italy and Holland, China Special Police team and China National Team, Brazilian Sanshou Team, Argentina Sanshou team, Mexican Sanshou team, and others from Pan American countries.

There were over 20 US Open Sanshou/Sanda fighting challenge events along with 8 professional “Art of War” Sanshou/Sanda productions promoted by the Shaolin Institutesince then. If I can assist you in anything g please contact me at 251-662-3225 or visit www.shaolin-world.net, www.usaskf.org and www.artofwarsanshou.com

I sincerely hope you can be part of event and part of the legacy.

Shi DeRu (Shawn Liu)
